

PRESS RELEASE

R-M Automotive Refinish

November 2018

QUICK AND EASY:

R-M® UV LIGHT FILLER GREY NOW AVAILABLE IN A PRACTICAL SPRAY CAN

The proven LIGHT FILLER GREY primer filler by R-M, BASF's premium brand for automotive refinishing, is now also available in a practical spray can. It is ideal for repairing small damages or for use in a multi workplace. Body shops that use UV technology or plan to do so benefit additionally from R-M LIGHT FILLER GREY AM 810's shortened drying time under UV light.

For flexible, mobile work

Repairing small damage is now faster and easier than ever. Thanks to the practical spray can, R-M LIGHT FILLER GREY AM 810 primer filler can always be used immediately. No other equipment is required, and nothing has to be mixed. Just remove the cap and start spraying. This makes spray painters' work even more flexible and mobile, since they can take the spray can wherever they need to use it in the body shop.

R-M LIGHT FILLER GREY AM 810's light grey color matches a wide range of basecoat colors. In addition, all of the advantages of the liquid R-M LIGHT FILLER GREY P2530 have been retained for the spray can version. For instance, at 20°C room temperature, the primer filler requires a mere 20 seconds of flash-off time and dries under a UV lamp in just five minutes.

R-M: Perfection made simple

Using LIGHT FILLER GREY AM 810 ensures a smooth work flow, which saves time and makes the repair process quick and reliable. Body shops that perform lots of cosmetic damage repairs can effectively boost their productivity by using the primer filler. In addition, the product is especially well-suited for application to plastic parts.
